

BRITISH AIR MEN DESTROY SUBMARINES

DROP BOMBS ON HOBOKEN WORKS; FACTORY IN FLAMES

GREAT BATTLE RAGING IN THE CARPATHIANS

200,000 SOLDIERS RELEASED BY FALL OF PRZEMYSL JOIN IN NEW BATTLE

(By Associated Press.)
London, March 24.—The admiralty announced that a British air raid had successfully been carried out today in which the English air squadron dropped a number of bombs on German submarines, being constructed at Hoboken, near Antwerp. It is believed that much damage was done. The works were observed to be on fire. In the flight, commander Crossley Meates was obliged to land in Holland on account of engine trouble. He is uninjured and will be interned.

Big Battle Raging in Carpathians.
Belin, March 24.—Reports from the Carpathians indicate that one of the greatest and most sanguinary battles of the campaign is raging. The Lokal Anzeiger's correspondent telegraphs that "a great bloody battle is now in full swing in the Carpathians." The next few days will probably see the released Przemysl investment army of 200,000 men engaged in this titanic struggle.

Italy Preparing For War.
London, March 24.—A large force of Allied troops was landed on the peninsula of Gallipoli yesterday from transports in the Gulf of Saros, according to an Athens dispatch to the Daily Express. A general attack upon the fortifications of Dardanelles is to be undertaken immediately on the arrival of further French and British warships, now on their way to join the attacking squadron.

Austria May Sue For Peace.
Geneva, March 24.—Austria considers war with Italy more than probable, according to dispatches from Vienna. A large number of troops have arrived in Tyrol and Trieste, where defensive works are being constructed. The Geneva Tribune professes to have received advice from Austria that the Dual Monarchy might consider signing a separate peace treaty with Russia, without consulting Germany, offering as a concession, to cede to Russia large portions of Galicia.

To Avoid Complications.
Washington, March 24.—All British cruisers have been ordered to refrain from taking supplies from neutral countries to avoid breaches of neutrality.

Italy Will Demand Concessions.
Rome, March 24.—Commenting favorably on the adjournment of the chamber of deputies, the Giornale d'Italia says that every deputy now is convinced of the necessity for Italy to act energetically, facing any sacrifice, even a supreme struggle, in order to realize Italian aspirations.

Destroy Bridges and Clear Towns.
Geneva, March 24.—A dispatch to Tribune Tribune, says that Austrian military engineers dynamited all buildings between Sogana Pass, in Trent and Lake Garda, on the Italian frontier, which would be in line of artillery fire. The eastern part of the town of Rovereto is reported abandoned and all of the buildings razed.

Austrians Lose 120,000 Men.
London, March 24.—The size of the garrison at Przemyel and the number of men who surrendered to the Russians greatly exceed all estimates. According to dispatches received from Petrograd tonight the

SAYS HER HUSBAND WAS VERY BRUTAL

ASKS DIVORCE AND DIVISION OF PROPERTY; MAKES START- LING ALLEGATIONS.

Charging that her husband knocked her down and otherwise cruelly mistreated her, Mary Lee, who was wedded to Jas. Lee in Texas in 1896 today filed suit in district court for absolute divorce and division of property. She also asks temporary alimony pending the final determination of the case. The couple have been separated since last July. During that month, the wife states, he was unusually cruel to her and the night she fled from home he had knocked her down with a club and left her for dead. They have lived on a farm near Guthrie for several years. She makes a number of other startling charges.

LEGISLATORS GONE HOME; BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

Special to the Daily Leader.
Oklahoma City, Okla., March 24.—Practically all house members have gone home.
Two appropriation bills were passed during the closing hours of the legislature. One appropriates $4,500 for construction of sleeping quarters at the state home for the deaf and dumb at Sulphur and the other appropriates $20,000 for a water works plant at the negro school at Langston.
The session laws and the senate journal will be printed under the direction of Senator Mitchell and Jos. S. Morris, secretary of the senate.
Bills Signed by Governor.
House Bill No. 646, repealing sections 1911, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17-1819 of chapter 21, article 2 of the revised laws of 1910.
House Bill No. 467, making an appropriation for additional improvements at the state penitentiary.
House Bill No. 647, dividing the county of Jefferson into two county court districts, and establishing a county court at the new oil town of Ringling; emergency attached.
The bill appropriating $75,000 additional for the capitol building.

LOVELL COUPLE IS JOINED IN MARRIAGE

Judge John D. Chappelle today united in the holy bonds of wedlock, David Lefroy Keeler, 25, and Gertrude Margaret Oehmman, 22, both prominent young people of Lovell. A number of their friends came down from Lovell with the couple to witness the ceremony. The judge tied the knot in his usual urbane and pleasing manner.

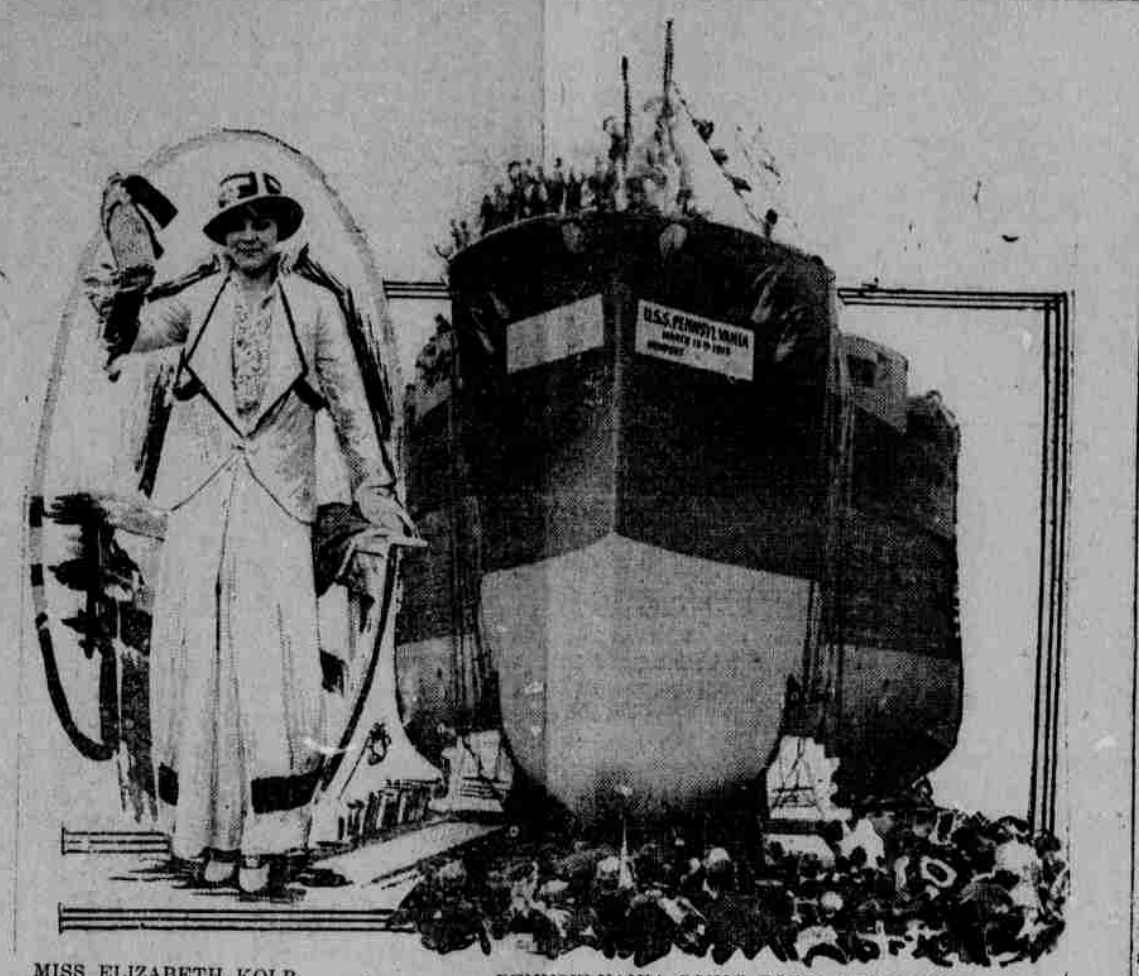

CAMPAIGN IN PROGRESS; JENNINGS CLUB ORGANIZED

Jennings, Okla., March 24.—The Jennings club (not Al) was organized here last night by the business and professional men of the city, a booster and town-building organization with "beating back" to a permanent place on the world's map as the prime motive. Joseph L. Hall, president of the Oil Belt Terminal railroad, was elected president of the club with J. J. Fitzpatrick, oil man, as secretary-treasurer. But two committees were named at the first meeting:
Executive—George L. McElroy, C. M. Sarchet and A. T. Ramey.
Entertainment—Peter Rench, W. C. Tomlinson and William Twyman.
The designation of Jennings as "The gate city to the world's greatest oil field" was adopted by the club. Weekly noon-day banquets will be a feature.

WEARS LONG PANTS LESS THAN YEAR, BOY MARRIES.

Wichita, Kan., March 24.—Port Mahaney, 16, son of Mary Mahaney, a widow, and Bonnie Studer, 16, daughter of Bernardine Studer, a widow, eloped and were married at Newton. Both are members of the Catholic church. Neither received a dispensation to marry during Lent. Mahaney's playmates say that he began wearing long trousers less than a year ago.

AMERICA'S GREATEST BATTLESHIP AND HER SPONSOR.

MISS ELIZABETH KOLB. PENNSYLVANIA GOING DOWN THE WAYS.

The greatest battleship ever built in the United States, if not in the world, slipped down the ways at Newport News, the other day, as Miss Elizabeth Kolb, declared by the governor of Pennsylvania to be the "sweetest girl in the state," smashed a bottle of champagne on her bow.

CITY FIRE RISK RATES INCREASED

RATING BUREAU MAKES 25 PER CENT RAISES IN SOME INSTANCES

Ingalls' fire insurance rating bureau has re-rated Guthrie. Increases have been made all along the line. In some instances the advance in rates have been 25 per cent. The insurance rating is now the highest ever known for this city since 1890. "This raise in insurance rates is a direct slap at the fire department," said a merchant today. "Fire fighting efficiency always tends to lower insurance rates. It seems to me the city commission should take this matter in hand and ask for another rating—one that is equitable. Under the present rating commercial insurance is almost prohibitive. We may as well not have a fire department."

FIRE OF FLEET DOES LITTLE DAMAGE TO FORTS

(By Associated Press.)
Dardanelles, March 16.—The correspondent of the Associated Press made a personal inspection of the effects of the bombardment of March 16th on the Turkish positions at Kilit Bahr and Kale Sultanie.
Although the fire from the Allied warships was accurate, the Turks suffered virtually no losses.
Since March seventh the fleet of the Allies has remained inactive outside the straits. No progress has been made since the Kum Kaleh and Sedd-el-Bahr forts were silenced by a cross fire. Such cross fire as this is impossible inside the mouth of the straits. The dispatch was sent from Dardanelles two days before the concerted advance of the Allied fleet against the Turks, which resulted in the sinking of three battleships.

TULSANS COMING TO OILTON

Oilton, Okla., March 24.—The Tulsa boosters, business and professional men, who have already taken several trade extension trips this spring, will visit Oilton and the oil field next Tuesday, coming by special train from Tulsa. Stops will be made at Jennings and Oilton and the visitors will visit all the interesting points in the field, spending a portion of the day there.

AUTO OWNERS SHOULD ATTEND MEETING TONIGHT

Every automobile owner in the city should attend the meeting of the Guthrie Auto club at the Chamber of Commerce at eight o'clock this evening.
There will be several important amendments to the constitution to vote on and an official copy of the new road law has been received and will be discussed. The matter of obnoxious roads also will be up. If the members will come on time all the business can be transacted in less than an hour and be plenty of time left to take in the opening and style show.

CARTER FINISHING UP THE ASSESSMENT

SAYS CONDITIONS ARE ABOUT LIKE LAST YEAR; SEVERAL ADJUSTMENTS MADE.

County Assessor E. E. Carter and his deputy Frank Weiss left this morning for a tour of the smaller towns of the county. Messrs. Carter and Weiss will assess the towns. With the exception of seven townships, the big job of assessing Logan county has been finished. Carter finished up Guthrie and Guthrie township the first of this week. "I find conditions about the same as they were last year," he said. "In some instances I have raised the assessment and in other cases I have, in justice to the owners, reduced the assessment. I have played no favorites, but did what I honestly thought just and right."

FASHION SHOW OPENS IN GUTHRIE TONIGHT

Everybody is busy in the various business houses today getting ready for the grand spring fashion opening and style show tonight. There is a general cleaning up and rearranging and decorating and the window dressers are all doing their best to put on a show that will please and attract. Many of the stores will close at 5 o'clock but all will open again at 7:30 and remain open until 10.
With music and lights, food and drink demonstrations, living models and the showing of new styles and seasonable goods of all kinds there will be entertainment for everybody and the people of the city should turn out en masse and visit every store.

CAPPER RIPS UP SENATE AND PORK BILLS

(By Associated Press.)
Topeka, March 24.—Governor Capper exercised the right of veto today on appropriation bills when he cut two hundred and twenty-nine thousand dollars from the building improvement and extension appropriations for state institutions. He criticized severely the so-called "pork barrel" methods of the senate. He said the legislature will "go down in history as the most extravagant legislative body ever assembled in Kansas."

MAYOR ROBERTS IN DURANCE VILE

(By Associated Press.)
Indianapolis, March 24.—Mayor Roberts was today ordered into the custody of the United States marshal, charged with corrupting government witnesses in the Terra Haute election cases.

TOURISTS TO SEE STATE ENROUTE WEST

Denison, Tex., March 24.—Automobile tourists enroute to and from the Panama-Pacific exposition will want to see Texas and Oklahoma is the judgment of the officials of the Oklahoma, Texas and Gulf highway, which extends from Florence, Kansas, to Dallas, Texas, touching forty-eight towns including Arkansas City, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Pauls Valley, Sulphur and Durant, Oklahoma; Denison, Sherman, Van Alstyne, and McKinney, Texas. A new bridge over Red river, near Denison, on this highway was recently opened to traffic, and it is understood that the roads are being improved all along the line. The Oklahoma, Texas and Gulf highway connects with the Santa Fe Trail at Florence, and at Dallas with diverging highways through the heart of Texas, to Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, Waco, Austin, Fort Worth, and intermediate points. Also to Colorado over the Colorado to the Gulf highway, through the Pan-handle of Texas. W. N. King, Secretary of the Denison Chamber of Commerce is distributing, free of charge, logs in folder form of the Oklahoma, Texas and Gulf highway.

POOR LO IS SUBDUED BY GOOD DINNER

BLOODTHIRSTY INDIAN LEADERS ARE PETTED BY GENERAL SCOTT

KIND WORDS IN LIEU OF BULLETS

HOW ARMY OFFICER, SINGLE HANDED, PUT DOWN UTAH "INDIAN UPRISING"

(By Associated Press.)
Thompsons, Utah, March 24.—Brig. Gen. Scott, chief of the army staff, served four docile Indians with dinner here today.
A few days ago these Indians were accounted as bloodthirsty leaders of a desperate band of Indian outlaws. They are Old Peak, chief of the Plutes, Tse-Xe-Gat, his son, charged with murder; Old Posey and his son. The Indians referred to General Scott as the "Good White Father." Scott called them "his boys."
General Scott said he had sent a friendly Plute into the renegade camp, summoned the Indians to a beef feast, gave them gifts of blankets and they agreed to do anything he desired.
The Indians had "stood off" the United States marshal and his posse for two weeks.

ALL SIDINGS FILLED WITH CARS

Oilton, Okla., March 24.—Every Frisco siding from West Tulsa to Pawnee is filled with cars loaded with material and supplies for Oilton and the adjoining oil field, according to officials of the Frisco railroad, who have been in Jennings and Oilton recently contracting for additional facilities. The Frisco and Oil Belt Terminal companies, it is said will open a joint station in Jennings at once.

NEW YORK MAGNATE KILLS SELF AND WIFE.

New York, March 24.—Howard Roebuck, treasurer of the Astor Trust company of this city and prominent in New York society, shot and killed his wife last night as she was playing the piano for his entertainment in their home in East Seventy-fourth street. The banker then committed suicide with his same revolver.

NEW BANK STARTS BUSINESS

Oilton, Okla., March 24.—The First State bank of Oilton has opened for business, with $11,000 in deposits the first day. P. L. Jennings, formerly of Drumright, is in charge as cashier, the other directors being J. W. Gilliland of Holdenville, Kelly Roach of Oklahoma City, O. Jones of Bristow, J. F. Dingley of Oklahoma City and B. B. Ferris of Drumright.
